

h♂ ♀ phob a
 March 28, 2011 8pm JH 124

Speaker: William Campbell

William Campbell is a degree candidate for a Masters of Divinity and a Masters of Non-Profit Administration at North Park Theological Seminary in Chicago.

He received his Bachelor of Arts in English and Creative Writing at Valparaiso University in 2005. For the past 5 1/2 years, he has worked with college students throughout Chicago as a staff member of InterVarsity Christian Fellowship. Since leaving InterVarsity in October of 2010, he has been working on launching an online magazine with other editors focused on issues of faith, sexuality, and race called "The Orientation." His long term goals are to see more spaces created where LGBTQ people can find the freedom to be who they are and encounter God genuinely, as well as foster platforms for honest conversation & dialogue between the broader Church and LGBTQ communities.

the immigration war
 March 29, 2011 8pm MO 007

Speaker: Paco Amador

Pastor Francisco "Paco" Amador was born in Mexico City and spent his early years in Tampico. At the age of 14 he came to North Carolina and was introduced to the Lord Jesus as a high school student.

At the age of 18, Paco became a student at the Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. In 1991 he visited the Little Village neighborhood for the very first time and immediately fell in love with it. He and his wife moved there, and in the summer of 2005, Paco was called into full time ministry as the pastor for New Life Community Church. The focus of New Life is to be fully immersed in loving every one of our neighbors, serving each other's needs and demonstrating through our lives the redemptive love of our Lord Jesus.

Paco is currently the board chairman for the Lawndale Christian Health Center, is working on his D.Min. from Bakke University, and loves dancing with his daughters and wrestling with his sons.

Pastor P and his wife, Sylvia, have been married for fifteen years. They can't think of a better place to live in the world than in La Villita.

March 30, 2011 8pm JH 124
 Re/ligion

Speaker: Rhonda Jennings

Rhonda has been on staff with IV for 20 years. She has worked at Ball State, along with speaking at various colleges around the Midwest, as well as being trained by and with staff and students in studying Scripture.

Rhonda returned to the high school class room in an urban setting to teach physics, chemistry and whatever else they may ask her to teach. Some of her hobbies include gardening, watching colts football and cooking. She is married to David, and has 3 stepsons (One graduated from IU) and 1 beloved dog. The stepsons are beloved too for the record! :-)

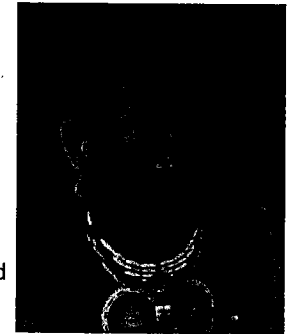

ENVIRONMENTAL DEGRADATION
 March 31, 2011 8pm JH 124

Speaker: Charles Robinson

Charles Robinson is a member of the Choctaw Nation of Oklahoma and has a passion to teach others about Native American ways. He has served on the Board of Directors for the Tennessee Indian Education Association and travels to reservations and Native communities to meet with tribal leaders regarding the challenges facing Native people in the 21st Century.

Charles has a strong awareness for the importance of cultural identity within various people groups. He has traveled extensively, and has spent time in Europe, Jamaica, Bolivia, Nicaragua, Peru, Pakistan, Afghanistan and Canada. He grew up in Texas and Oklahoma and has worked a variety of jobs, including a wrangler, rodeo cowboy, sales, real estate, retail, marketing, and many others. Charles is married to his wife of 7 years (Siouxsan) and they have 7 children. They reside in Franklin, Tennessee.

RACISM
 April 1, 2011 8pm JH 124

Speaker: Rev. Dr. Soong-Chan Rah

Rev. Dr. Soong-Chan received his B.A. in Political Science and History/Sociology from Columbia University; his M.Div. from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary; his Th.M. from Harvard University; and his D.Min. from Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary.

Soong-Chan Rah is formerly the founding Senior Pastor of the Cambridge Community Fellowship Church (CCFC), a multi-ethnic, urban ministry-focused church committed to living out the values of racial reconciliation and social justice in the urban context. He currently serves on the board of Catalyst Leadership Center and Sojourners/Call to Renewal. He has spoken at several conferences, the most recent being the 2008 CCDA National Conference. Soong-Chan, his wife, Sue, who teaches special education, and their two children, Annah and Elijah live in Chicago.

Follow Up Large Group:
April 7, 2011 @ 7:30pm

IMU Dogwood Room

Speaker: Bob Hunter

Bob Hunter is a diversity and justice specialist with InterVarsity Christian Fellowship and on the national leadership team of InterVarsity's Black campus ministry. He is a frequent speaker on issues of justice and faith.

Bob is the past chair of the Richmond Indiana Human Rights Commission and current director of Equality Richmond, a support group for promoting Human rights in Richmond and Indiana.

Bob is married to Dr. Carol Hunter, a professor of American Social History at Earlham College and has two grown activist children, Rachel and Daniel.

4 Week Follow Up Groups:

- Homophobia
Wednesdays at 7:30
Tables by IMU Pizza Hut
Contact e-mail: ivcf@indiana.edu
- The Immigration War
Mondays at 7:00
Tables by IMU Pizza Hut
Contact e-mail: ivcf@indiana.edu
- Religion
Tuesdays at 7:00
Tables by IMU Pizza Hut
Contact e-mail: ivcf@indiana.edu
- Environmental Degradation
Wednesdays at 6pm
Tables by IMU Pizza Hut
Contact e-mail: gsmithjr@umail.iu.edu
- Racism
Mondays at 7:00
Burger King Quad of IMU
Contact e-mail: rodelyn.ivcf@gmail.com

Want to know more about JATEO?

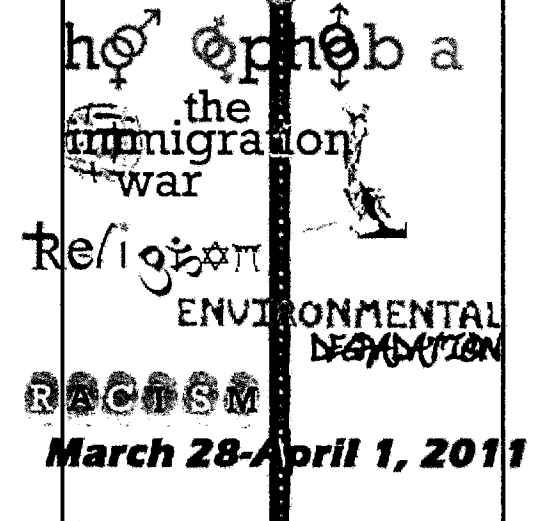

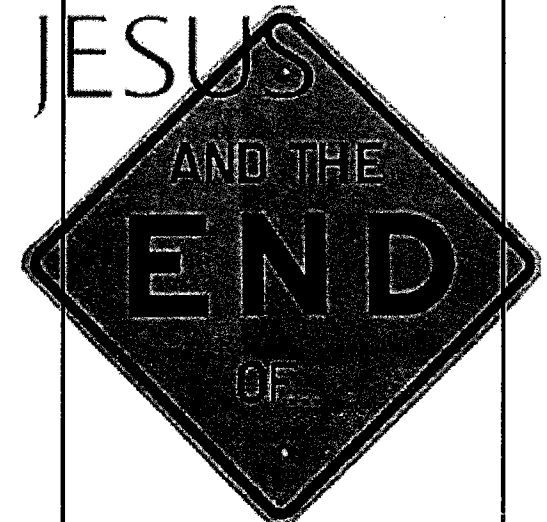

<http://www.facebook.com/jesusandtheendof>

Twitter: @Jesusandthendof

E-mail: ivcf@indiana.edu

www.facebook.com/jesusandtheendof

March 28-April 1, 2011

Event Sponsored by:

IU Sage
InterVarsity Christian Fellowship
Christian Student Fellowship

